

VIRTUAL CONNECTIONS

Upcoming Sessions

Events
Summer Concert to be announced

Baking, Cooking,
Self-Expression,
Advocating, Writing,
Vocabulary, Music,
Dance

Key Topics This Week

On Strives we discussed what other countries are doing to practice EQUALITY & DIVERSITY.

The Participants of virtual connections practiced for the summer Virtual Concert. Michelle R did an awesome job as the host for the rehearsal for the spring concert. The ladies practice their songs.

Michelle R discussed the wonderful time she had celebrating her birthday and all friend participated.

with her friends.

Our Participant's Accomplishments

Congratulations Katie F for working the first week at her new job and enjoying it. She met new staff. Congratulations to her !!!!

Anthony R accomplished assisting setting up bingo this week

Sohum S continues to enhance is independent skills by vacuuming his entire house alone. He is very proud of himself.

Gloria attended in A weekend respite at St Ann Garden City and had lots of fun.

Jeri-Lyn Passarella talked about enjoying Friday night dance

Vincent discussed how important it was to take care of pets (his dog by going to the animal clinic in Port Washington.

Some Fun Facts In New York

The walkway over the Hudson is the longest pedestrian walkway in the world. The George Washington Bridge is exactly one mile long

For More Information:

Respite@citizens-inc.org

Apply on Bunk1.com